FICTIONAL TRAINING DOCUMENT

CleanPro Procurement Ethics Investigation – Case Pack

For training only. All names, IDs, dates and figures are fictional.

Complaint

The CleanPro hotline complaint alleges that CleanPro may have received preferential treatment during a facilities-services procurement. The complaint requests review of the procurement process, approvals and possible conflict-of-interest indicators.

E1 – Email, 03 Feb 2026

Procurement Manager (PM-1) to CleanPro: "Send your revised quote once I share the other rates."

E2 – PO-1181 & PO-1182, 14 Feb 2026

Two purchase orders, each for ■4.9 lakh, were issued to CleanPro. Both were approved by PM-1.

E3 – Invoice CP-221, 10 Feb 2026

Invoice value: ■9.8 lakh. The invoice references both PO-1181 and PO-1182.

E4 – Vendor Master

CleanPro's phone number matches the emergency contact number recorded for a relative of PM-1. The record does not establish why the numbers match.

E5 – Bid Sheet

Bidder	Quoted amount
CleanPro	■9.8 lakh
Bidder X	■8.1 lakh
Bidder Y	■8.4 lakh

Investigation caution

These items contain indicators that may warrant further review. They do not by themselves establish bid-rigging, conflict of interest, favoritism, kickbacks or any other misconduct. Identify alternative explanations and additional evidence needed before reaching findings.